Welcome Message

Respected Seniors & Dear Colleagues,

Season's Greetings!

It is indeed a great pleasure to invite you all for VAPICON-2026, the 16th Annual Conference of Association of Physicians of India - Vidarbha Chapter, scheduled from Friday 09th to Sunday 11th January 2026, at Akola.

Akola, traditionally known as the Cotton City, has a pleasant weather in the month of January. It is well connected to all major cities by roads & rail. Air connectivity is now available at Amravati (an hour away), while other surrounding Airports are at Nagpur, Chhatrapati Sambhaji Nagar, Jalgaon & Nanded, all at an equidistant 3.5 hours.

During the VAPICON-2026, we look towards exchanging thoughts & ideas with a Galaxy of Stalwarts of Medicine & Allied Specialties, making deliberations in varied Workshops, Symposiums & Key Note Address on Friday 09th Jan. Similarly we ensure a rich academic content through numerous Lectures, Orations & Panel Discussions along with Debates, Posters, Free Papers & Quiz on the 10th & 11th Jan all throughout focusing interactive sessions & knowledge sharing, apart from sports, recreation & cultural fellowship.

We cordially welcome You to join us in this learning expedition, to rejoice over robust professional networking & to explore this Fun Fiesta along with a Jubilant Academic Salsa in the ambiance of The Grand Jalsa with our Team API, Akola.

Warm regards,

अकोला

Akola is a prominent city located in the Vidarbha region of Maharashtra. It serves as an important commercial, educational, and agricultural hub of western Vidarbha. The city lies on the banks of the Morna River and is well connected by road and rail to major cities of Maharashtra such as Nagpur, Amravati, and Mumbai.

Known as the "Cotton City", Akola is one of the largest producers of cotton. Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Krishi Vidyapeeth (P.D.K.V.) Akola was established in 1969 and is amongst the first few agrarian universities of Maharashtra. The city also has a growing industrial base, educational institutions, and healthcare facilities. Marathi is the main language spoken here, and the culture reflects a beautiful blend of traditional and modern lifestyles.

Akola is also close to several places of historical and spiritual importance, including Shegaon (Sant Gajanan Maharaj Temple), Asatgadh, Balapur Fort and Narnala Fort.

Akola District

RAJ RAJESHWAR MANDIR

Devoted to Lord Shiva, the Rajeshwar Mandir stands as a spiritual heaven in Akola's center. This old temple featuring detailed carvings and a calm setting, shows the area's deep religious roots.

Distance from Venue – 6 km

SHREE GAJANAN MAHARAJ MANDIR

The Gajanan Maharaj Temples are built to honor Sant Gajanan Maharaj, an Indian holy saint widely popular in Maharashtra, India and also well known in rest of the world. Maharaj lived during the late 19th century and early 20th century, spending most of his life in Shegaon, where he achieved Samadhi on September 8, 1910.

Distance from Venue – 36 km

NARNALA FORT

Narnala, also known as "Shahnur Fort", is a hill fortress in Maharashtra, India, named after the Rajput Ruler Narnala Singh. The fort was built in 10th century A.D.

Distance from Venue – 80 km

ANANDESHWAR MANDIR

The Anandeshwar Temple, located in Lasur village of Daryapur taluka, is a remarkable example of ancient rock-cut architecture. (Hemadpanthi). Situated on the banks of the Purna River, this black stone temple resembles a fort from a distance.

Distance from Venue – 43 km

KATEPURNA SANCTUARY

The land vegetation at Katepurna Sanctuary is southern tropical dry deciduous forest. There are over 115 species of plants at this sanctuary such as Bahada, Dhawada, Moha, Tendu, Khair and is home for many wild animals and rare birds.

Distance from Venue – 40 km
